Three bedroom mid-terrace freehold house superbly located on a leafy residential street in the heart of Stoke Newington.

Requiring full refurbishment throughout, this ex-local authority property is offered for sale with no onward chain. Generous accommodation of approx. 1,100 sq ft includes, to the ground floor, kitchen-diner with doors opening onto a south-facing patio; guest cloakroom and substantial storage room. The first floor boasts a double bedroom and spacious living room with twin south-facing windows. On the top floor there are two further double bedrooms; a family bathroom and access to a generous loft. Stoke Newington Church Street's eclectic array of eateries, boutique shops, pubs and coffee bars are right on the doorstep. There are excellent transport connections to The City and West End with numerous good bus routes, and regular trains from Stoke Newington Station (Overground) heading down to Liverpool Street.
