- Victorian End of Terrace House
- Two Reception Rooms
- Family Bathroom & Luxury Ensuite
- Close to Popular Schools
- Three Double Bedrooms
- Generous Kitchen-Dining Room
- Secluded West-Facing Garden

Stunning extended three bedroom Victorian end-of-terrace house in a fantastic location moments from Church Street, Clissold Park and popular local schools.

This larger than average property boasts well-proportioned rooms, period features and a secluded west-facing garden. It also offers huge potential to create further habitable space by extending to the rear with a side-return and to the front with a ground and first floor extension.

The ground floor accommodation comprises front reception room/study with bay window, shutters and wood-burning stove; living room with twin aspect and French doors to the side patio; and generous well-equipped kitchen with bay-window, opening through to a light-filled dining room with sky lights, windows and French doors on two sides. A wonderfully secluded west-facing garden replete with mature trees and shrubs extends to the side and rear. Back in the house, there is a basement ideal for storage. Moving upstairs, the first floor offers a family bathroom with shower over the bath, and two good size double bedrooms, one with twin aspect windows. The top floor is given over to a wonderfully stylish principal bedroom and luxurious ensuite bathroom with roll-top bath.

The green open spaces of Clissold Park, and Church Street and the High Street's eclectic array of eateries, independent shops, pubs and coffee bars are practically at the end of the road. Excellent transport links to The City and West End are nearby too, with numerous good bus routes, and trains to Liverpool Street from Stoke Newington Overground Station (Weaver Line).
